A LIGHT RAIL IS COMING TO THE VALLEY

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority voted unanimously to bring a north-south light-rail line to the East Valley along Van Nuys Boulevard. The $1.3 billion line will add 14 stations in Van Nuys, Panorama City, Arleta, Pacoima and San Fernando to the county's growing rail network.

The most important purpose of this rail line is to service over 62,000 residents of the northeast Valley who are transit-dependent. The Van Nuys area has the seventh-highest transit ridership in the county, and the line is estimated to carry 47,000 daily trips by 2040.
